

The John Berne School

A Catholic secondary school, owned and operated by the Marist Brothers

Changing Lanes Information Sheet

Changing Lanes

A program for ex-Berne students who need help with the next stage of their lives.

What is Changing Lanes?

Sometimes getting it together can be difficult; asking for help is a sensible alternative to doing nothing or remaining at risk.

Changing Lanes is an initiative of the Berne Education Centre and offers help with post-school options. It might be just the thing you're looking for.

Who is Changing Lanes for?

Any ex-student who has graduated from the Berne Education Centre and needs a bit of extra support.

What does Changing Lanes offer?

Changing Lanes can give you help with things like:

- Finding a training course/pre-apprenticeship/apprenticeship course that will suit you.
- Helping you with TAFE enrolments.
- Getting a job.
- Work experience.
- Preparing a résumé.
- Staying at school or getting into a school.
- Finding a place to live.
- Managing your finances.
- Getting your Driver's licence, Green card, RSA, and RCG.
- Life skills.
- Drug and alcohol information and counselling.
